 - i. 1st: Emily Stearn, 2nd: Felice Becker
- b. Treasurer's Report - Kerri Wilgus
 - i. Checking: $153,707.56
 - ii. Savings: $60,030.49
 - iii. Reserves: $482,014.02

2. Old Business

- a. Family Bingo - Beth Anson
 - i. Grace noted what a phenomenal job Beth did. She was like a professional and knew how to interact with the kids. It was a nice fun family event.
- b. Donor Drive - Julie Berkus & Lindsay Vaisman
 - i. Linday noted they have made $129,160.00 so far without matching. Julie noted there is 70% participation so far. Their goal is 100% participation in 100 days. Grace noted that their target is $188,000 and they are doing well and are on track. Room parents should push that the classes will get parties for 100% participation. Julie noted Mr. Ross's class is in the lead.
- c. Community Fundraising - Emily Stearn
 - i. Emily noted that the Cricca's fundraiser made $160.

3. New Business

- a. Community Fundraising - Emily Stearn
 - i. Emily noted that the Jamba Juice fundraiser will be October 21st and the Fresh Brothers fundraiser will be October 28th.

- ii. Emily reminded people to clip the Amici boxes and that they are worth 50cents each. Last year we made $160 from Amici.
 - iii. Emily noted that the Amazon link no longer works. Instead people should use smile on amazon and bookmark that link.
- b. Sponsorship Opportunities - Jennifer York
 - i. Jen noted that they are selling banners and still have more available.
- c. Halloween - Room Parents & Julie & Lindsay
 - i. Lindsay said classes will decide what they will do for Halloween. The room parents will be in touch with the classes if they need anything. Julie noted that the teachers are working with the room parents.
- d. Cub Wear - Shirra Hever & Stacy Dishlip
 - i. Stacy noted that the cub wear arrived last night and people will be able to pick their purchases up at picture day.
- e. Red Ribbon Week - Tamana Kazemi
 - i. Tamana noted they are having a meeting Monday and said they are planning on doing some healthy recipes. Red Ribbon week is October 23-31. Grace noted that Tamana is in charge of the wellness committee. If you are interested in getting involved they coordinate Red Ribbon week, wellness week, the Farmers Market Jamboree. Mrs. Brazell noted that Mrs. Broussard is the teacher liaison for the wellness committee. Mrs. Brazell noted that teachers are already working on a virtual red ribbon week for the classrooms with activities.
- f. Book Fair - Stacy Dishlip & Jen Love
 - i. Stacy noted that they have two options and are trying to figure out which one works the best. The book fair will be in mid November. There will be a virtual option similar to the online summer book fair. Hopefully they are going to come up with some virtual activities for the kids to do. They can log on and still do the estimate jar and win gift certificates to the book fair. Hopefully the staff will read books online to the kids. Mrs. Brazell noted Mr. Larkin is the teacher liaison.
- g. Online Auction - Michelle Freedman
 - i. Michelle noted she is in the process of finalizing our account with bidding for good. She noted that a lot of stores that we have gotten items from in the past are now gone so she is putting new ones in. She is starting the online auction applications and is looking for new opportunities.

- ii. Grace noted that they have discussed having the class baskets that are normally done for the fall festival be done for the auction instead this year. Michelle said she wants to make sure people will still buy things even if they contribute to their class basket. Mrs. Ekizian is the teacher liaison for the auction.
- h. Picture Day - October 21st - Shirra Hever & Donna Welti
 - i. Mrs. Brazell noted picture day will be a drive thru in the upper yard. Picture times will be alphabetical so families can come at one time. If your child is in Boys and Girls Club they can take them to get their pictures taken. Information will be sent to parents online.
 - i. Read A Thon
 - i. Lindsay noted they are looking for someone to help run this new event.
 - ii. Stacy and Jen have researched companies that host read a thons. They would be happy to help. If anyone is interested please email them. Grace noted it is all online so should be fairly easy.

4. B&G Club - Jasmine Townsend

- a. Jasmine was unable to attend the meeting so Lindsay spoke for her. Boys and Girls Club is at capacity. They are helping the kids with their zooms. They are talking to the district about getting more space so they can open more spots.

5. Principal's Report - Mrs. Brazell

- a. Mrs. Brazell is working with Boys and Girls Club to try to get more space.
- b. Mrs. Brazell noted that ten kids in special education started on campus this week.
- c. Mrs. Brazell noted that Mrs. Cioffi asked to come back two days a week from maternity leave and the district said yes so she started this week.
- d. Mrs. Brazell noted that next week is the great shake out. They are going to do it with the teachers and the people from Boys and Girls Club who are on campus. She encourages parents to teach their children what to do in an emergency.

- e. Mrs. Brazell said the grade levels will be doing a material pickup for Halloween.
- f. Mrs. Brazell noted that Dr. Stepenosky applied for a waiver.
- g. Mrs. Brazell noted that they are disinfecting daily. Every teacher tells Mr. Jim if they are at school so every room that is used can be sanitized every day.
- h. Mrs. Brazell noted that they are talking about how they can create outdoor spaces. The district bought umbrellas and they have ten. The county would like kids to spend 50% of time outside.
- i. Mrs. Brazell noted that conferences will be in November. The teachers like to involve the children and have them set goals.

6. Meeting Adjourned 8:56 a.m.
